

Case Description: Co-Creation in Palermo

The Best Practice led by CESIE will occur at Euromadonie which is a professional school based in Palermo.

The students who are attending the gardening course will be engaged in the activities planned for the Best Practice.

The Best Practice's main goal is both to reclaim the green area bellowing to the church that is in partnership with the school and creating a lush garden.

